UNITED STATES OF AMERICA : 1:14CR¹⁹⁴~~371~~-1;

v. :
DONALD RAY MORGAN : FACTUAL BASIS

NOW COMES the United States of America, by and through Ripley Rand, United States Attorney for the Middle District of North Carolina, and as a factual basis under Rule 11, Fed. R. Crim. P., states the following:

1:14CR371-1 ¹⁹⁴⁻¹

On April 16, 1997, DONALD RAY MORGAN ("MORGAN") was convicted of Discharging a Firearm into Occupied Property in Rowan County, North Carolina, Superior Court. The judgment reflected that MORGAN was sentenced to 25 months to 39 months imprisonment. According to the North Carolina Governor's Office, Office of Executive Clemency, MORGAN has not been pardoned.

On February 6, 2014, an FBI Source (hereby identified as Source) provided information that, in January 2012, Source purchased an AK-47 rifle from a person calling himself "Don Morgan." Source recalled that MORGAN had advertised the AK-47 rifle on a shooter's web platform. The advertisement listed the firearm as a "Pre Ban Chinese AK 47" and provided a contact telephone number ending in 6080. Source contacted MORGAN at that telephone number and arranged to buy the weapon from MORGAN the following day. MORGAN directed Source to go to a business in Salisbury, North Carolina, to meet with MORGAN to purchase the AK-47. Source met with MORGAN at the business address. MORGAN then opened a large "closet" area in the office and Source and MORGAN entered the closet. Source said the closet contained many handguns and rifles, as well as ammunition. At the time, MORGAN also offered to sell Source an "HK 91" rifle and a Ruger handgun. Source declined to buy the HK 91 rifle and the Ruger handgun. Source did purchase from MORGAN a Norinco AK-47 rifle and magazines. Source purchased the AK-47 rifle for $700.00. Source also purchased three (3) containers of ammunition (over 1,000 rounds) for the AK-47 rifle for an additional amount. Source could not recall how much he/she had paid for the ammunition.

ATF Special Agent Matt Amato, a certified nexus expert, interviewed Source regarding the weapon purchased from MORGAN. Based upon the Source's familiarity with weapons generally, a description given by Source of the weapon, including markings, SA Amato opined that the firearm was a Norinco AK-47 and was manufactured in China. Therefore, the weapon had been shipped in interstate commerce prior to being possessed by MORGAN.

On October 15, 2004, the United States Secretary of State designated al-Qa'ida in Iraq ("AQI"), then known as Jam'at al Tawhib wa'al-Jihad, as a Foreign Terrorist Organization ("FTO") under Section 219 of the Immigration and Nationality Act and as a Specially Designated Global Terrorist entity under Section 1(b) of Executive Order 13224. On May 15, 2014, the Secretary of State amended the designation of AQI as an FTO under Section 219 of the Immigration and Nationality Act and as a Specially Designated Global Terrorist entity under Section 1(b) of Executive Order 13224 to add the alias "Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant" ("ISIL") as its primary name. The Secretary also added the following aliases to the ISIL listing: "the Islamic State of Iraq and al-Sham" ("ISIS"), "the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria" ("ISIS"), "ad-Dawla al-Islamiyya fi al-'Iraq wa-sh-Sham," "Daesh," "Dawla al Islamiya," and "Al-Furqan Establishment for Media Production."
